

not spare you the mont. "You must employed you."
employment from
and she has been al weeks. Had it
me when the work
have often myself—

ir, and as bread is a good deal."
threw it upon the
ropped on the floor.
over Miss Allison's
pick it up.
said she to Miss
ft the room.
ity astonishing?" said was determined not
—so I threw her the

e, and had not such said Adeline evading said, 'she would be I ever saw.'
t I cannot endure to bold and imperti-

reply, Elsey re-en-hat Mr. Lester was Belmont.

stened, for Herbert regard she coveted
his respect she shown elegance of person insic worth, he had y, likewise—he and shared between them
ased relative.
Belmont, after hasti-
her dress more be-win and assist me to

Adeline, 'but I have must return home.'
e, the image of Emi-ner mind, and she del permit, to endeavor were limited, for her derable wealth, had that she not only
r own cape and col-f her mother do the
—When she arrived
e, which she found
s; her quarterly al-
er supplied her, hav-chase of a more ex-
indulged in before,
regretted that she r, who always advi-
s, when she could ant of her means, in but always, if poss-er for purposes of she enclosed in a Miss Allison. While employed, Herbert matine attracted by ful manners of Elvi-
hour's conversation
continually to all his orished sentiments,

was some bitter opposition, but it was too weak to show itself on voting. Having passed the Committee without division, there can be no doubt of its success in the House, and the members are the same.

The Boston papers have not yet heard the news, though it was in their city four days ago.

☞ We had quite a snow storm yesterday—which covered the earth with snow several inches deep.

☞ The Boston folks, or rather a few of their big-bugs, have sent a memorial to the Parliament of Montreal that they would prefer that the terminus of the Montreal Rail Road should be at Boston rather than Portland. They like the Concord route the best; and think the 'Canadians out to see as they do. Indeed!

We could get thousands of signatures in this city to a memorial more strongly in favor of the Portland terminus, than the Boston memorial is in favor of Boston. In all such matters "some things can be done as well as others." But in this case, the veil is thin, and easily seen through.

Boston is a great city, but its people were always "full of notions."

Senator Bates. Letters were received in Boston on Thursday, stating that Mr. Bates continued seriously ill, and that his disorder (a lung fever) was extremely violent. These accounts are corroborated by letters from Washington, in New York papers. The Herald's correspondent says—"I learn that he has relapsed, and that his case is very critical, indeed—so much so, that he is not expected to live more than twenty-four hours."

Unfortunate. Mr W. H. Patch, of Bangor, had his pocket cut, on board the steamer Portland, on Friday morning, on his passage from B. to this city,—and a pocket book abstracted containing about $2600. He offers $500 reward for the thief and money.

☞ It is a curious fact, that since the annexation of Texas, even the fancy stocks have risen in New York! Whigism—What do you think of that?

Rockwell, at the Boston circus, advertised a bull fight for Monday evening, and some of the audience were quite outrageous because the part of the bull was played by a horse!

Anecdote. At an 'upper end' Miller meeting, in this city, the other evening, after a pause of some length —Brother M. stated that he had a special impression that he must kiss sister N. Her husband being present, thought such an impression must come from the Devil—as no good impression would expose his wife to be kissed by such an "ugly looking mug" as that brother wore. So he took her away un-kissed, and will probably keep her away. MASON.

choice of a Medical Superintendent, to take place of Dr Ray, on the 19th instant. The Board consists of Hon. Reuel Williams, Ex-Governor Kent, John H. Hartwell, Esq., and Hon. C. Holland.

Narrow Dodging. The postage, under the new act, between Philadelphia and Boston will be ten cents. If the distance was two miles shorter, the postage would be only five cents.

AGAIN. The Female Samaritan Society of this city, again acknowledge the donation of $25 from a benevolent individual.

Robbery of a Grave-Yard. There is much excitement in Frankfort and Monroe, growing out of the robbery of a grave-yard in the latter place, of the corpse of a Mrs. Brooks, which has been found in the back office occupied by Dr. Tewks-bury of Frankfort, who has been arrested with his student, Tibbetts. The husband of Mrs. Brooks was deeply affected at the sight of the corpse of his wife, upon which the work of dissection had been commenced. After a while he became frantic, and greatly enraged. Indeed all Frankfort and Monroe are in a state of the most intense excitement, at the development of this outrageous and sacrilegious desecration of the grave. The parties arrested were to have a justice trial this morning, in Monroe.—[Bangor Mercury.

The Signal says—the legal investigation of the matter, as alluded to above, resulted in the acquittal of Dr. Tewksbury of Frankfort. His student, Tibbetts, was bound over in the sum of five hundred dollars.

Fatal Occurrence. There seems to be no warning of fire arms that can prove effectual. On Sabbath morning, the 2d March, Mr Evard, silversmith at Pittsylvania court house, Virginia, stepped into the back room of the bar of the "Rising Sun," and picked up a musket loaded with turkey shot, and pointed it at the bar keeper, Francis Compton, son of John Compton, of said county, aged about eighteen years, a boy of industrious, prudent and enterprising habits, who begged him to desist from such idle acts, when at that moment, the musket discharged, sending the entire contents into the body just at the point of the breast bone, some of the shot passing through the body. The young man staggered into the front room and dropped upon the identical spot upon which little Sneed fell, who was similarly killed by Roberts, two years ago. Evard has been committed to jail to await his trial for the killing. [Lynchburg Virginian.

Another Fire in Norfolk, Virginia. We learn from the Beacon; that a fire broke out at 1-2 past 8 o'clock on Thursday night last in a stable on Fox Church street, next to the Methodist Protestant Church. The flames soon spread with fearful rapidity to the Church, (formerly the old Theatre) which was entirely destroyed. The adjoining tenement of Mr Thomas E. Dixon, was in imminent danger and saved with great difficulty. The wind being strong from about E. S. E., the Masonic Lodge, Baptist Church, and several houses on Church street, were on fire from the sparks, but were put out without much damage. The fire, however, was gotten under between 11 and 12 o'clock. It had not been ascertained whether the Church had been insured.

by the following remarks were
and Charles An-

1st. The day but twelve times
the expenses of
2nd. Our Con-
freedom.

3d. James K
United States, I
as from the ashe
4th. Geo. M.
of the Illustrations

5th. The rich Executive and that Unity the b
6th. Our Con-
wash its shores,
the Rio Grande

7th. The Jodi Rights never let Rights, be com-

8th. The 3d
State—May her cucumber never federalism.

9th. Hugh J.
most man, as

10th. Rhode I

11th. Our oth
their evil ways,
mocracy.

12th. The pet
ries of the depas ment should have

13th. Andrew may he live like mine eyes have thy servant depe

By the Presid
the lone star of t be not pollute I but may she be honorable terms.

By Charles A.
of the day—The triumph of man

By Phineas F
James K. Polk,
the Nation, may from on high; as have reason to s
rest.

By James F.
star in the East,
by his vote on t
fully independ
him to be a true
this State.

By Dr. Geo
President elect.
1844, to kill wh
By O. W. W
ry of Thomas J
By Wm. Bart
land of annexati liberty of loving

By Timothy
eloquent orator,
with continues to Success of the U
and corruption

By Isaac C
agon Terrory-
nation, which h
might for right;